

Light plane crashes near Mallee Highway SA, injuring pilot

A light plane has crashed near the Mallee Highway at Elwomple, south-east of Adelaide, injuring the pilot.

The man, 46, has facial injuries from the crash, which happened about eight kilometres from Taillem Bend.

He was treated by a medical retrieval team at the scene, then flown to Flinders Medical Centre in Adelaide.

Smoke was reported to have come from the aircraft at the time of the crash landing, police said.
