Toodyay glider plane crash: ambulance rushes pilot to hospital

Date April 30, 2015 - 10:32AM

Brendan Foster

The scene of the glider crash which left the pilot in hospital. Photo: Nine News Perth

A pilot was rushed to hospital on Thursday morning after his glider plane crashed in a paddock near Toodyay, north-east of Perth.

The 48-year-old did not need to be cut free from the glider but was rushed to hospital in an ambulance.

The extent of his injuries are still unknown but a St John Ambulance spokesman confirmed the patient was in need of urgent medical attention.

Extracted from:

http://www.watoday.com.au/wa-news/toodyay-glider-plane-crash-ambulance-rushes-pilot-to-hospital-20150430-1mwkvo.html

On 30/04/15 at 14:13:04