

Man lucky to survive plane crash at Raglan, near Rockhampton

Madura McCormack, The Courier-Mail July 31, 2016 11:48am

A MAN is being airlifted to hospital after a light airplane crash in Raglan, near Rockhampton.

The man, 52, is said to have clipped the tree line of his property after taking off, causing him to crash.

Queensland Ambulance said the man suffered lacerations to his head and a fracture arm but is in a stable condition.

The crash happened just after 8:30am on Sunday morning and police will investigate.

Extracted from:

<http://www.couriermail.com.au/news/queensland/man-lucky-to-survive-plane-crash-at-raglan-near-rockhampton/news-story/52f14dd546eda0ff14e7eac0b43b130c> On 01/08/16 at 08:29:40