

Tooradin Airfield plane crash landing: lucky escape for four people

Wes Hosking Herald Sun

Four people have had a lucky escape after a light plane crashed on landing at Tooradin Airfield. Picture Christopher Chan.

AN EYEWITNESS believes it's a miracle four people including a child inside a plane which this afternoon crash landed weren't killed.

Bystanders including an off-duty paramedic also rushed to their aid.

The incident happened at Tooradin Airfield southeast of Melbourne at about 1.15pm.

An Ambulance Victoria spokesman said four people were being treated for shock and minor injuries.

All were taken to Frankston Hospital for assessment.

Four people were taken to Frankston Hospital after the plane crash. Picture: Georgia Snell.

Among those onboard include a man aged in his 20s with neck pain, a female aged in her 30s with shoulder injuries and man in his 50s with minor cuts and abrasions.

Extracted from:

<http://www.heraldsun.com.au/news/victoria/tooradin-airfield-plane-crash-landing-lucky-escape-for-four-people/news-story/9c151b1a883a6625d13c27be2ada00b1> On 20/03/16 at 17:30:39