Man dies following glider crash - Benalla

Saturday, 30 September 2017 15:25

A 75-year-old Frankston man has died following a glider crash in Benalla today.

The glider came down in a paddock on Murray Road shortly before 2pm, however the exact circumstances surrounding the incident are yet to be established.

Emergency crews responded but the man, who is yet to be formally identified, died at the scene.

Police will prepare a report for the coroner.
