

October 31 2017 - 10:00AM

Hoch Air aviation and fraud charges adjourned

Esther MacIntyre

Hoch Air's Josh Hoch and Nichole Limburg face more than 340 charges in Mount Isa Magistrate's Court, adjourned until Wednesday, November 22.

Mr Hoch was due to appear in Mount Isa Magistrate's court on Wednesday, October 25 at 8.30am, following an adjournment from August 30.

In August both Mr Hoch and Ms Limburg were charged with one count of fraud – dishonestly gaining a benefit while carrying on a business.

The charges relate to alleged unlawful charter aviation services conducted by Hoch Air between 2012 and 2016.

Earlier this year, police charged Mr Hoch with 342 offences following a protracted multi-agency investigation into the alleged tampering of aircraft.

Extracted from:

<http://www.northweststar.com.au/story/5023658/hoch-air-aviation-and-fraud-charges-adjourned/>

On 10/11/17 at 14:55:46