

Light plane crashes on property off BulunBulun Road, Currabubula near Tamworth

Breanna Chillingworth@breannachill

9 Jun 2017, 2:30 p.m.

A PILOT has escaped injury after his light plane came down in a paddock near Tamworth.

Emergency services were alerted to reports of a two-seater plane on its roof near Currabubula about 1.25pm after reports air traffic control at Tamworth Airport were alerted by a passing aircraft.

Police and paramedics responded and the Westpac Rescue Helicopter found the upturned light plane on its roof on a property off the BulunBulun Rd.

It's understood the pilot was not injured and is walking around, assisting emergency services at the scene.

Extracted from:

<http://www.northerndailyleader.com.au/story/4720225/pilot-uninjured-after-plane-crash-breaking/?cs=159>

On 10/06/17 at 08:10:22