A man whose gyrocopter plunged to the ground at the Caboolture airfield has had a miracle escape after he was taken to hospital with a minor head injury.

The pilot was able to escape the wreckage by himself after the crash, about 8.30am on Wednesday, before he was taken to Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital for treatment, the Queensland Ambulance Service said.

The pilot, in his 40s, was lucky to be alive after his gyrocopter crashed at the Caboolture airfield.

Queensland Fire and Emergency Services also attended the scene to assist in the clean-up of a fuel spillage.

An investigation into the accident was under way.
