PLANE MAKES EMERGENCY LANDING AT MAITLAND AIRPORT

— Grant McIntyre (@macca668) November 30, 2018

A pilot has escaped uninjured after making an emergency landing at Maitland Airport.

The 65-year-old pilot who was the only person on board the twin engine aircraft, was forced to circle the airport to burn off fuel, after encountering a landing gear issue.

The aircraft skidded off the runway and came to rest on grass. The left side of the undercarriage was damaged.

A layer of foam was sprayed on the aircraft after it came to rest.

The pilot walked from the aircraft to be assessed by an ambulance crew.
