

Woman missing after ultralight crashes into Lake Eildon, in central Victoria

Photo: A search operation is underway at Goughs Bay for the missing woman. (ABC News)

A woman who was a passenger in a fixed wing ultralight aircraft is missing after it crashed into Lake Eildon, in central Victoria.

The incident happened at Goughs Bay near Mountain Bay about 12:30pm.

The pilot, a man in his 40s, was rescued by a fishing boat and treated by paramedics before he was taken by road to Melbourne's Alfred hospital.

Emergency crews are still searching for the missing passenger and the aircraft.

Photo: An Eildon patrol boat searched for the missing woman and plane. (ABC News)

Water police and search and rescue officers are on their way to join the search.

The Civil Aviation Safety Authority and the Australian Transport Safety Bureau have been notified.

Extracted from:

<https://www.abc.net.au/news/2019-06-08/person-missing-after-ultralight-crashes-into-water/11193404>

On 08/06/19 at 16:38:23