

The Advertiser

Pilot incurs minor injuries after gyrocopter crashes near Goolwa Airfield

The Advertiser

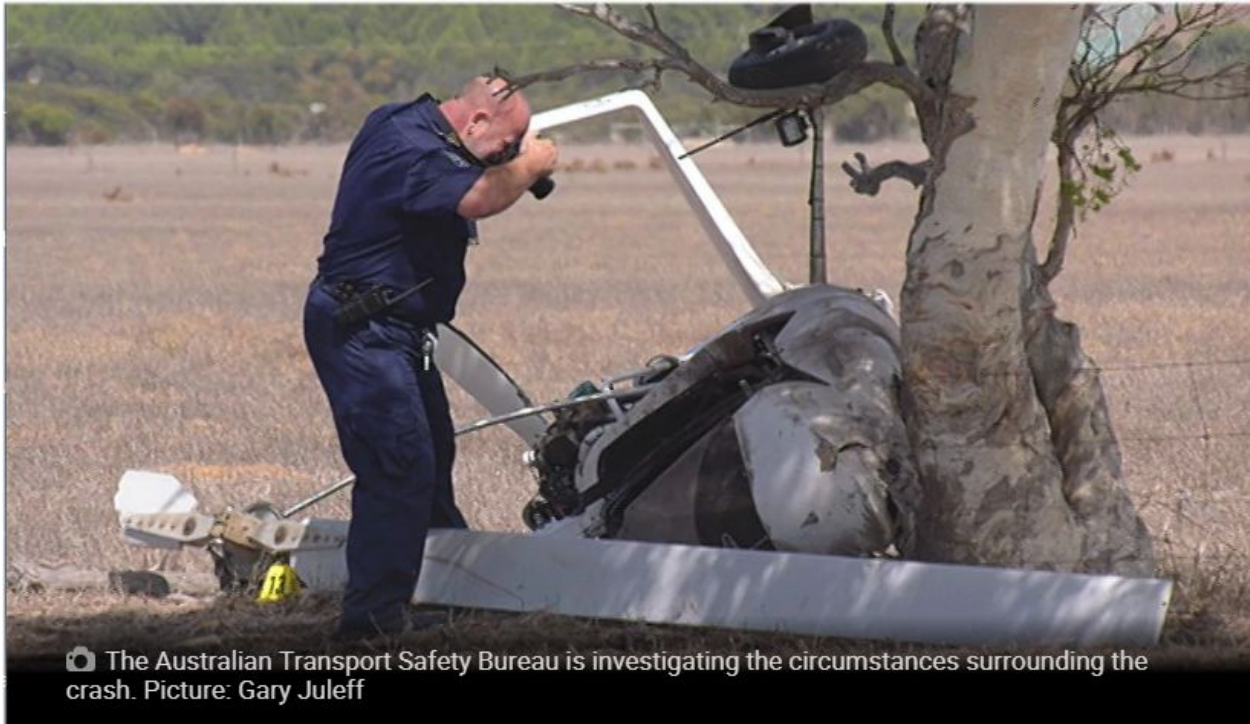

March 27, 2019 3:36pm

- A pilot has walked away with minor injuries after his gyrocopter crash at Goolwa Airfield.

The 68-year-old man was taking off from the airfield on Boettcher Rd just after 1pm on Wednesday but the small aircraft clipped the fence line and crash landed.

The man was taken to South Coast Hospital.

The Australian Transport Safety Bureau is investigating the circumstances surrounding the crash.

The gyrocopter crashed near the Goolwa Airfield. Picture: Gary Juleff

Extracted from:

<https://www.adelaidenow.com.au/news/south-australia/pilot-has-minor-injuries-after-gyrocopter-crash-at-goolwa-airfield/news-story/3c9ce0cef2d18d3ea0006886c39844d6>

On 28/03/19 at 09:27:21