

Patient in serious condition after Scenic Rim plane crash

By Lucy Stone January 26, 2020 — 11.35am

A man in his mid-60s has suffered serious spine and head injuries in a reported light aircraft incident near Aratula in the Scenic Rim.

Emergency service workers at the scene of the crash near Aratula. Credit: Courtesy RACQ LifeFlight Rescue

A Queensland Ambulance Service spokeswoman said paramedics were called at 9.51am for a reported plane incident near Tarome Road.

By 11am a rescue helicopter and critical-care paramedics had arrived at the scene.

The patient is loaded onto the rescue helicopter before being taken to Princess Alexandra Hospital in Brisbane. Credit: Courtesy RACQ LifeFlight Rescue

The man, who was in a serious but stable condition, was airlifted to the Princess Alexandra Hospital before midday.

Extracted from:

<https://www.brisbanetimes.com.au/national/queensland/patient-in-serious-condition-after-scenic-rim-plane-crash-20200126-p53ut0.html>

On 26/01/20 at 20:13:33