Hello and welcome to another Issue of the AirCentre News Flash from the News Desk at Archerfield airport where local aviation history is recorded for all those persons who fly in, pilot or enjoy the ownership of light aircraft.

This Flash is released along with the March 2001 Week Two Issue of the AirCentre News now available for viewing on the www.

Week Two, titled "The Power of One" along with a call to Battle Stations, is the sad story about an aviation bureaucracy that appeared not to listen to those people who may be of some influence.

If you happen to be an aircraft owner or pilot in OZ then perhaps you are aware of the drama that occurred last week over a small change CASA wanted to implement to the Civil Aviation Act 1988.

It was waiting for approval by the Senate after having being passed in the Lower House of Parliament.

For those of you not directly involved in aviation matters, it may be of interest to you on how an ignorant bureaucratic system can be challenged by the proper use of "people power" and how one person can make a difference to what should have been a forgone conclusion for those involved in the abusive use of legislative power to rectify a poor management problem.

Most of the drama that occurred can be followed in the AirCentre News pages and associated links where local aviation history is recorded for all those persons who fly in, pilot or enjoy the ownership of light aircraft.
