This issue is released along with February Week One of AC's Aviation News Digest - the last Issue of the News Flash was back in May 2003 and as mentioned to a number of new subscribers since then the News Flash will be issued as and when required ...and that is now!

Archerfield as an airport for private light aircraft is under threat

The Chief Executive Officer of the Archerfield Airport Chamber of Commerce Ross Steele - contacted the News Desk and asked as a matter of urgency to invite interested aviators to attend a 'public' meeting next Tuesday February 7th 2006 - 1930hrs at the Scout Air Activities Centre on Archerfield airport for a briefing on and about the past and future direction of Archerfield

Ross would like to see a large increase in membership with the aim in maintaining the airport as a GAAP (light aircraft) aviation facility

Further details can be obtained by visiting the News Desk on line
